

Eurhinus cf. adonis
(Coleoptera: Curculionidae)

This is the weevil Eurhinus cf. adonis (ID courtesy Charlie O'Brien) on an inflorescence of Solidago chilensis, photographed near La Escondida, Chaco Province, Argentina.

Submitted by Ted C. MacRae, Senior Research Entomologist & Project Lead, Monsanto Company, 700 Chesterfield Parkway West, Chesterfield, MO 63017, ted.c.macrae@monsanto.com.

If you have a photograph of an insect you would like to have considered for American Entomologist's Featured Insect series, please e-mail it as a 300-dpi TIFF to the editor at cdarwin@aol.com.